From the Principal's desk

Dear Parents, Carers and Hill Top Community members,

What a difference a fortnight makes. Since our last newsletter we have had children attend the marvellous Moss Vale Show, participate in a school assembly, train for the Hindmarsh Noble Cup, join in quality lessons in the class rooms and for the most part play safely in the playground. Alongside this we have had dangerous trees removed from our playground and also had much of the unsafe concrete edges removed to begin the process of creating a more enjoyable play scape in our school playground.

Throughout all these events we have had the kind and considerate support of our parent volunteers. It is with your help that the best things that happen in our school take place.

I want to finish today by encouraging all parents on our school site to conduct themselves in the way that our volunteers and paid staff do each day. It is a privilege to be invited onto the school site and as such, community members who cannot conduct themselves appropriately at our school and help keep all children safe may not be welcomed back on site each morning for our assemblies or in the afternoons to wait to pick up your children in the grounds of the school.

Yours sincerely,
Mark Gardiner.

P&C Pocket

Don’t forget to come to our P&C meeting tomorrow in the school library. It starts at 1.30pm. A new trial time to get new parents involved.

Our Excursion
to Moss Vale Show

On Friday Hill Top Public School went to the Moss Vale Show. First we went looking for the reptile show. When we were looking for the reptile show we saw white, grey and black horses.

Next we went to see the magic show. Then while we were watching we were allowed to eat. Then he said “I need a helper” and John put his hand up and John got chosen.

Thirdly we went to see the art work. Then when we were looking we found Cameron’s art. He came first. Then we found Mrs Griffiths cooking and flowers. Lastly we went to see the men’s shed and the farmyard. There was a very fat pig called Sunny. It was a girl.

Book Pack Update

By now all book pack materials should have been distributed in each class. Please note that these packs were for exercise books and stationery. The cost did not include textbooks.

Fruit Donation Thanks

HTPS students will be able to enjoy fresh apples, oranges and bananas this Friday at our Soccer Gala Day courtesy of a fine donation by Woolworths Tahmoor. Thanks also to the Guido family for arranging delivery. Great family and a great donation for a great school!

With our newsletter being produced each fortnight (on a Wednesday) this year we would like to save paper and email as many families as possible.

If you would like to receive your copy this way, please complete the form below.
